UNKNOWN to each other, the King and Queen of Belgium and the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall celebrated their wedding anniversaries together yesterday. After their formal reception at Hoboken, when they were welcomed by Vice President Marshall in behalf of the President, King Albert and Queen Elizabeth entertained all luncheon at the Walton Hotel. The members of the official welcoming party. No mention was made of the fact that yesterday was the nineteenth anniversary of the marriage of the royal hosts and Vice President and Mrs.
Marshall, who were observing their twenty-fourth anniversary, did not learn of this interesting coincidence until they returned to Washington last evening. Nor did the King and Queen of Belgium know of it.
The guests at the luncheon were Prince Leopold, the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall, the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing, Newton D.
Baker, Secretary of War, the Ambassador to Belgium and Mrs. Whitlock, the Countess de Caraman-Chi-may, Lieut. Gen. Baron Jacques.

Count Guy d'Outremont, Lieutenant Colonel Noif, Rear Admiral Long and Major W. W. Hoffman.
The official ceremonies over, King Albert and Queen Elizabeth spent the rest of the day "inognito," enjoying their first twenty-four hours in the United States in the way which appealed to them most as private persons. Their official status was resumed today when they were formally welcomed by the city of New York.
The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall had planned a small fete in honor of the occasion and had asked a few of their intimate friends to dine with them, but the hospitality had to be canceled on account of their trip to New York. They got back to their apartment last night. The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing also came home last evening.
The Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who went to New York to take part in the celebration in honor of King Albert, Queen Elizabeth and Prince Leopold, will not return to Washington until Monday.

Baron Goto Leaves.
Baron Goto, the distinguished Japanese statesman, has returned to the Plaza Hotel, New York, from Washington, and will start almost immediately on his return journey to Japan.

Lord and Lady Swaythling arrived in New York yesterday and will come to Washington shortly to be guests of the minister of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, and Mme.
Groultch. Mme. Groultch went to New York to meet them. After their visit here, they will make an extended tour of the United States.
Lord and Lady Swaythling are accompanied by their son, the Hon. E.
E. S. Montagu, who will enter Harvard University. Lord Swaythling is a brother of the British secretary for India, and is himself a member of the House of Lords. This is his first visit to the United States in twenty years, and Lady Swaythling has not visited this country before.

Sir William Tyrrell, confidential secretary to the British ambassador, and Major Crawford Stuart, of the British embassy, are passing a few days at the Plaza Hotel before coming to Washington.

The Prince de Croix, special secretary of the Belgian embassy, is in New York, having gone over with others of the embassy staff to greet his sovereigns.

William Gibbs McAdoo, who came to Washington yesterday, is staying at the Shoreham Hotel. He was accompanied by his young daughter, Miss Sallie McAdoo, who attends school here.

William Howard Taft has arrived in Washington for a short visit and is staying at the Willard Hotel.

Capt. Geoffrey Blake, D. S. O., R. N., accompanied by Mrs. Blake, has just arrived to assume his post as naval attache of the British embassy in Washington. It is his first visit since his gallant participation in the battle of Jutland, when he was gunner officer aboard the battleship Iron Duke, and later second in command aboard the Queen Elizabeth.

Captain Blake's predecessor, Capt.
Arthur Snaggs, will leave Washington in about a month to return to England.
Senator and Mrs. Howard Sutherland are in Chattanooga, Tenn., where they went to attend the marriage of their only son, Capt. Richard Sutherland, U. S. A., and Miss Josephine Whitcliffe, daughter of Mrs. William Whitcliffe of Chattanooga. The ceremony was performed Wednesday at noon in the First Presbyterian Church, and was attended by several hundred relatives and friends. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit trimmed with bands of gray squirrel, with small toque of gray squirrel. She wore a corsage bouquet of orchids.
The best man was Major Hooper.
The ushers were Sidney Riddle, Rob-

MISS FRANCES MOORE
Daughter of Mrs. Frances Du Bois Moore, who will be married next Thursday to Lieut. Richard C. Reed, U. S. N.

ert J. Riddle, Jr., Ewing Watkins, and Chester Watkins.
After a short wedding trip Captain and Mrs. Sutherland will make their home at Camp Merritt, where he is now stationed.
Mrs. Sutherland is well known in Washington, where she has visited on a number of occasions as the guests of Miss Virginia Sutherland.

Gen. Jervoy To Visit Panama.
Maj. Gen. Henry Jervoy, U. S. A., Assistant Chief of Staff, will leave Washington next week for an inspection trip which will take him through the Panama Canal and to the camps in Washington and Oregon. Mrs.
Jervoy will accompany him and they will be gone two months.

General and Mrs. Jervoy's son, Lieut. Wesson Jervoy, who was recently graduated from the Military Academy and has just returned from a trip to France, has gone to his station at Fort Riley, Kan.

Brig. Gen. and Mrs. D. L. Brainerd will give a small dinner tonight at the Cafe St. Marks in compliment to Colonel and Mrs. Smith. Colonel Smith is the American military attache at Buenos Ayres.

Medical Director and Mrs. James Duncan Gatewood, who have been visiting Col. and Mrs. Earl North, at Camp Humphreys, Va., went today to Quantico, Va., to stay with Dr. Henry E. Jenkins, U. S. N., and Mrs. Jenkins.
Mrs. Jenkins and her two daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Gatewood.

Tranham-Bauskett.
The marriage of Miss Jane Starke Bauskett and Lieut. William Dunlap Tranham, U. S. A., was solemnized on Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock in St. Thomas Church. The wedding was very simple, an. Lieutenant Tranham has just returned from long service in France. Only members of the two families and a few intimate friends were present, and immediately after the ceremony Lieutenant Tranham and his bride left for a brief wedding trip.

The Rev. Dr. C. Ernest Smith, rector of the church, officiated. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Bauskett, as maid of honor, and was given in marriage by her cousin, Lieut. Col. J. Moultrie Ward.
Clarence Tranham was best man for his brother. The bride wore her traveling costume, a smart tailored suit of dark brown cloth, with a becoming brown velvet hat, and she carried a sheaf of Bride roses. Her sister's gown was of navy blue satin, with which she wore a blue moire picture hat, and she carried pink roses.
Lieutenant and Mrs. Tranham will make their home in Camden, S. C.
His mother, Mrs. William Dunlap Tranham, sr., came from Camden to attend the wedding. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Bauskett and the late William T. Bauskett.

Miss Julia McNeel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan McNeel, of Marietta, Ga., has been the guest for the last few days of her aunt and uncle, Comdr. and Mrs. Frank Freyer, at their home in Connecticut avenue.
She left yesterday to enter the National Cathedral School for the term.
Miss McNeel attended the Cathedral School last year.

Mrs. Donaldson, wife of Lieut. T. Q.
Donaldson, Jr., U. S. A., sailed from New York on Wednesday en route for Germany, where she will join her husband, who is stationed there with the army of occupation.
Mrs. Donaldson was Miss Elizabeth Rumbough before her marriage, which took place in Washington the last of May.

The marriage of Miss Frances Moore, daughter of Mrs. Frances Du-Bois Moore, to Lieut. Richard C. Reed, U. S. N., will take place Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the home of the bride's mother, on Wyoming avenue. The Rev. Richard C. Reed, father of the bridegroom, will perform the ceremony. Miss Moore will be attended by her sister, Miss Suzanne Moore, as maid of honor, and the best man will be Dr. Reed Smith, of the University of South Carolina.

The wedding had been planned for November or December, but Lieutenant Reed has had orders to report for duty in Samoa and plans had to be changed.

Visits White Sulphur Springs.
Mrs. Robert S. McCormick has gone to White Sulphur Springs, W.
Va., for an autumn visit. She spent the summer at Southampton, L. I.

Mrs. Augustus S. Worthington and Miss Florence Worthington returned yesterday from Hot Springs, Va., where they have been spending the summer.

Major and Mrs. A. A. Cedarwald had a small company dining with them at the Cafe St. Marks last evening.

J. Low Harriman has joined the Washington colony at White Sulphur Springs.

Mrs. Frederick E. Chapin and her debutante daughter, Miss Marcella Chapin, will go to New York next week for a short visit.

Mrs. Thomas C. Martin and Miss Peggy Martin will return to town today. They passed the summer at Narragansett Pier. Miss Martin will be a debutante this year.

Gen. and Mrs. Charles L. McCawley had a small lunch party for Gen. and Mrs. George Barnett at the Shoreham yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warwick M. Downing, of Denver, are at the Willard for a brief stay before returning West.

Many a New Trimmed Hat Presents A Brave And Upright Brim

—In quite a Continental style, and is also smart with its trimmings of silver braid or ribbon, and novel ornaments.

—There are plenty of other styles, however, if one does not favor the Continental. Many mushroom brims, straight or roll brim sailor effects. A number have the soft brims.

—Most of these new models are made of panne or Lyon's velvet, and besides the silver ribbon trimmings there are flowers of velvet and linen, new style appliqued flat silk flowers; jet and silver ornaments and pins.

—Black is the prevailing shade with trimmings in color or black. There are, however, other popular colors—taupe, navy, brown, etc.

Priced at $10.00 and $12.50

Kann's—Second Floor.

It Is Glorious to Be Alive, Simply to Wear One of These STUNNING BLOUSES

—At least that will probably be the way you will feel about it when you see how pretty they are. We simply cannot do them justice in word pictures, the eye must see the charm of color to appreciate them.

—GEORGETTES? Surely. Do you think any other material can take its place for blouses? They are in white, flesh, navy, brown, taupe, bisque, and gray. Women are still very partial to beading and embroidery, and makers have evolved new wonders in this art. However, many of the white and flesh colored models seem to require the dainty finish of lace. Some are in round neck styles, others square necks, with and without collars. The sleeves also show new touches. In the assortment are a few $6.95 black blouses. Choice at $6.95 —OTHER STYLES of heavier Georgette are shown in brown, taupe, and navy, some trimmed with contrasting colors, others in white and flesh, made with pretty roll collars, and some in collarless styles. Some are embroidered, some lace trimmed and some hemstitched. Choice at $9.95

Kann's—Second Floor.
